

Operative G T Purdy

Nov. 16, 1926.

Re: HENRY STEVENS.

He recalls that he had a revolver back in 1900, and some time between 1906 and 1910 gave it to Louis Bogart of Roselle Park.

Operative located Mr. Louis O. Bogart at his sporting goods store, 263 North Broad Street, Elizabeth, N.J.

He states that he knows Henry Stevens very well and for a great many years. He recalls the incident when Henry Stevens left the revolver with him and believes he sold it for whatever it would bring. He does not recall whether it was a revolver or an automatic pistol and cannot remember the date or to whom he sold it, and is not even able to recall the calibre of the gun.

Mr. Bogart's recollection of the incident is very vague and he could not furnish any information of interest.
